

International Products & Services

Fees, charges and services explained.

Introduction

At Danske Bank, we offer a comprehensive service to our personal and business customers involved in international trade or transactions.

In this Brochure you will find information regarding the following services:

- Bureau de change
- Foreign Drafts
- International Card Transactions
- International Payments
- Currency Accounts
- Trade & Export Finance

To reduce costs and increase efficiency we recommend customers sign up to one of our online eBanking services - eBanking for personal customers and Business eBanking for business customers, under either the personal or business sections.

This version of the brochure is effective from 01 February 2014.

Exchange Rates

Where a transaction involves an exchange from one currency to another, the currency exchange rate used will be that applicable at the time of processing. Our Foreign Currency Rates of Exchange are available from our website www.danskebank.ie

Our foreign currency exchange rates are calculated each morning based on mid-market rates with a fixed percentage margin. In cases where a client requests a negotiated rate, we may agree to a currency exchange rate based off the prevailing market rate at that time and at or within the spreads on our rates displayed on our website. The actual rate of exchange for a transaction will be detailed on your receipt.

Bureau de Change

Foreign Drafts

Foreign Drafts provide customers with a convenient international payment option. They may also be suitable for non-urgent transactions.

Features

- Allows you to post the draft directly to the beneficiary with a note or advice
- Available in a wide range of currencies
- Can be ordered online or by calling our Customer Direct team on 1890 866 866.

Payment Process

To reduce time and costs, the draft should be made out in the same currency as the destination country but for a more secure option we recommend you use an international transfer.

International Card Transactions

Debit Card Payments

Customers may use their ATM/Debit card whilst abroad to conduct transactions on their account.

The following charges apply when the transaction involves the conversion of a foreign currency in addition to the account transaction fee (if applicable).

ATM Transaction (except for Danske Bank UK ATMs)	3.5% of transaction value Min €3.17 Max €11.43
ATM Transaction (Danske Bank UK ATM)	The Bank's selling note rate applicable at the time the transaction is applied to your account.
POS (Point of Sale Transaction)	1.75% of the transaction value Min €0.46 Max €11.43

Credit Card Transactions

Foreign Currency Conversion Fee	1.75%
*Cash advance/withdrawal	1.5% or minimum fee €2.00.

* Note: will appear as a separate transaction on your statement.

The exchange rate that will be applied to any transaction (or refund thereof) that needs to be converted into Euro will be based on the exchange rate set by the card scheme (MasterCard or Visa) at the time that the transaction (or refund) is passed to our agents for processing. A conversion fee which is set by the bank is also applied to the transaction. If the transaction is routed through Danske UK ATM, the applicable selling note rate set by the Bank at the time the transaction is applied to your account will be used to complete the conversion.

These exchange rates, which will fluctuate continuously and without notice, are available from our website www.danskebank.ie. If you use your card outside of Ireland, the merchant may propose converting the amount of the transaction into Euro before processing the transaction.

Before you agree to this, the merchant must tell you any charges and the applicable exchange rate or reference exchange rate. The exchange rate or reference exchange rate used by the merchant may be different from that which would have been used by the Bank had the merchant not carried out the conversion.

International Payments

In this section you will find details of fees and charges applicable to transactions involving international transfers of monies.

Businesses that trade internationally need an efficient way of managing their foreign or cross-border payments. There are many options, and the best solution for your business depends on the number, size and frequency of your payments.

Danske Bank can offer cash management programmes and other services that may make cross-border payments easier and more cost effective. For details please contact us on 1890 866 866 or visit www.danskebank.ie

International Transfers

Here is some general advice on making outgoing foreign payments :

- Electronic fund transfers are generally more efficient than cheques. You can transfer funds via our online eBanking systems. Both Danske Bank's Personal eBanking and Business eBanking offer this feature.

- Always state the BIC and IBAN correctly, where applicable. You must always state the IBAN in countries that have adopted its use. For further information on BIC and IBAN see the important information on page 20 of this brochure.
- You should also be aware of the special rules on fees for certain cross border payments. See page 22 of this brochure for further information.
- We recommend that you update your creditor/payee information on an ongoing basis to ensure it is correct.
- Include a message to Danske Bank only if it is necessary. It requires manual post-processing at the bank, and we may charge a fee for such services.

Accounts in other countries

If you make regular cross-border payments to particular countries, it might be an advantage for you to open a local account with one of the other Group or partner banks in the countries in question. You also have the option to set up a regular cross border standing order. You will be charged the applicable fee for the payment type. To discuss this and other cash management services please contact us on 1890 866 866.

For information on value dates and cut-off times please see the important information section on page 20 of this brochure.

Other Related Charges

Missing/Incorrect IBAN €10.00

A valid IBAN should be supplied for all cross-border European payments irrespective of the currency being sent.

Manual Processing €8.00

When a payment cannot be passed onto the beneficiary's bank without first being processed manually by Danske Bank e.g. an invalid BIC code would require manual processing.

All EU - Standard transfers must meet the following regulations:

- Payments sent to SEPA Zone must be sent in EUR (Euro)
Payments to EEA countries can also be sent in SEK (Swedish Krona) or RON (Romanian Leu) or HRK (Croatian Kuna)
- The beneficiary bank's BIC (Bank Identifier Code) must be indicated if the payment is not being sent in EUR.
- The beneficiary account's IBAN (International Bank Account Number) must be indicated (if it is missing or incorrect, it will incur a fee of €10.00 per transaction and the value date may be affected).
- The remitter and beneficiary of the payment must each pay their own bank charges.
- The remitting and beneficiary banks must be able to effect payments without manual processing (if additional processing is required in Danske Bank, a fee of €8.00 will be charged per transaction).

Payments in EUR to an EU member state, Norway, Liechtenstein, Iceland (EEA countries), Monaco and Switzerland all form part of SEPA and are rejected unless they contain the correct IBAN. EEA (European Economic Area) and SEPA (Single Euro Payments Area) countries are listed on our website www.danskebank.ie

Fee Options

With some exceptions due to regulations (see table below), Customers can choose from three options when paying fees on an international transfer:

- SHA - The customer pays fees charged by Danske Bank and the beneficiary pays fees levied by their bank including any correspondent banks.
- BEN - The customer's fee levied by Danske Bank is charged to the beneficiary, as well as fees levied by their bank and any intermediary bank.
- OUR - the customer pays the fees levied by Danske Bank and the beneficiary's fees including any correspondent banks' fees. If Danske Bank knows the other bank's fee, this will be charged on the day of the transaction. If not, the fee will be applied at a later stage.

Fee Options	Payments to EU/EEA-countries	Payments to other countries
EU/EEA-currencies without conversion, e.g. EUR debited to a EUR-account	SHA	SHA, OUR, BEN
EU/EEA-currencies with conversion, e.g. SEK debited to a DKK-account	SHA, OUR	SHA, OUR, BEN
Non EU/EEA-currencies	SHA, OUR, BEN	SHA, OUR, BEN

Intermediary Fees

Further receiving bank charges may be applied in cases where Danske Bank needs to use an intermediary bank to transfer the funds. In this case, this fee may be charged back to the customer.

Details are available in our Clear & Simple Personal and Business Fees & Charges Explained brochures.

Trade & Export Finance

Documentary Collections

A documentary collection is a method of obtaining payment for goods exported. The procedure is operated using the banking channels to collect payment. It is an efficient process and it can be easily arranged.

Documentary Credits

The documentary credit is one of the most secure payment methods in international trade, offering the exporter a conditional payment guarantee from the importer's bank.

A documentary credit usually requires the presentation of specific documents and payment is made only when the exporter presents the documents that comply with the terms of the documentary credit.

Guarantees

An international guarantee may be given by the bank in support of a customer's obligation to fulfil a contract.

There are different types of guarantees, eg Bid or Tender Bonds, Performance Bonds, Retention Bonds, Advance Payment Guarantees and more than one can be included in a contract.

Fees

The Bank may negotiate individual fees based on the applicants risk rating and the specific risks associated with the proposed issuance of Documentary Collections, Letters of Credit or Guarantees which may result in charges higher than is set out overleaf.

Important Information

Value dates

Outgoing Transfers: Customer's account is debited on the day of the transaction. The Value Date refers to the date the funds are transferred to the corresponding bank.

Incoming Foreign Payment within the EEA in an EEA currency: The value date will be the day Danske Bank receives the funds (entry date) unless the request is received after the cut-off time or on a non-Business Day in which case the Value Date will be the next Business Day after the entry date.

All other Incoming Foreign Payments: The Value Date will be the Business Day after the entry date unless the request is received after the cut-off time or on a non-Business Day in which case the Value Date will be 2 Business Days after the entry date.

European Payment Holiday 1st May is a European payment holiday therefore no euro payments within SEPA can be processed from your account or received into your account on that day.

If you give us payment instructions on 30th April (where it is a business day) for a Euro Payment within SEPA, the funds will be credited to the beneficiary 2 business days later due to this holiday in EBA.

Non Business Day If we receive a payment into your account on a non Business Day, you will see the funds in your account that day with an interest value of the next business day. However, debit interest and surcharge interest (where the withdrawal of these funds on the non Business Day results in an unauthorized overdraft) will be applied, even though the balance on your account may appear to be in credit.

Cut-off times

eBanking/Business eBanking transactions must be inputted and verified via eBanking/Business eBanking by this time if the payment is to be processed that day; otherwise the payment will be processed the next Business Day. We recommend customers use Business eBanking or eBanking for a more efficient service.

Instructions processed on the Customers behalf, where the customer submits a payment instruction for the bank to process, for example via fax, the payment will be processed by this time, subject to the bank having sufficient time to complete the various security procedures, otherwise the payment will be processed the next Business Day. We therefore recommend that customers submit these instructions in good time.

Cut-off times change depending on the type of payment such as, if urgent or normal, and in some cases are also impacted by the currency being sent. Details of the bank's opening hours are available on our website www.danskebank.ie

IBAN & BIC

What are the IBAN and BIC Codes?

The International Bank Account Number (IBAN) is used to identify a bank account in cross-border transactions. When it is used in conjunction with the Bank Identifier Code (BIC) it will improve the efficiency of cross-border payments.

The BIC is a unique address which identifies precisely the financial institutions involved in financial transactions. Danske Bank's BIC in Ireland is DABAIE2D.

When should you use the IBAN and BIC codes?

Receiving payments from SEPA

If you receive payments from SEPA you must include your IBAN and BIC on your invoices and request the sender to make payments using these details.

Making Payments to SEPA

If you are requesting to make a payment to an account within SEPA you must quote your beneficiary's IBAN and BIC on your payment request. Failure to do so may result in additional fees being charged to you and possibly a delay in the payment being forwarded to the beneficiary.

For further information on Banks within the Danske Bank Group visit www.danskebank.com

Where can you get your IBAN and BIC?

Details of your IBAN and Danske Bank's BIC are printed on your account statement. Please refer to your beneficiaries to obtain their respective IBAN and BIC for outgoing payments to avoid additional fees.

Whilst we do our utmost to ensure that payments will be made on the value basis stated, we can only seek to ensure that the payments will be made to the beneficiary bank on this basis. We cannot be responsible for failure of the beneficiary bank to pass on the payment to the beneficiary.

Payments Regulations

The European Community (Payment Services) Regulations 2009 came into force on 1 November 2009 and replaced the previous regulations governing the handling of cross-border payments.

The purpose of these regulations is to:

- Ensure transparency of information relating to payments (other than payments by cheque or draft) in Euro or another currency of a member state of the European Community which originate from a Bank or other payment service provider within the European Economic Area (EEA).
- Set time limits for the execution of such payments.
- Attribute liability for delays and non-delivery of such payments.
- Require transparency of charges on such payments.
- The Regulations establish common core rights and obligations of users and providers of payment services.

The relevant features of the regulations are:

- An outward payment must be credited to the beneficiary institution within 1 Business Day except where that payment is made between accounts in different EEA Member States and where such payments do not involve Euro; these payments will be credited to the beneficiary institution within 2 Business Days. All timings assume that all information required to instigate the transfer was provided before the relevant cut-off time and timings will be extended by a day where the transaction is paper initiated.
- On receipt of an inward payment, the beneficiary institution has to credit its customer's account immediately where the day of receipt is a Business Day for EEA currencies within the EEA and in all other cases on the next Business Day.

- Compensation is payable by a Bank tasked with processing a payment, in the event that the payment is delayed or not executed at all. Once an enquiry is made and it is established that the transfer is made later than it would have been or has not been executed, customers are entitled to claim compensation. A Bank must rectify the situation without undue delay. The amount of the payment must be refunded to the customer along with, where applicable, any interest compensation and any bank charges for the payment
- No compensation will be payable by a Bank if inaccurate details of the payee's account were provided.
- A Bank must provide or make available certain information to its customers on the payment services it provides including information on any charges which it levies for payments. Business customers can agree with their Bank that the information (other than information on the charges levied for payments) need not be provided to them. However, the Bank cannot make any such agreement with personal customers.

In addition, a Bank cannot charge more for a cross border payment transaction within the EEA in Euro, SEK (Swedish Krona) or RON (Romanian Leu) than the amount which it charges for a corresponding domestic payment in those currencies. (Regulation 924/2009 [as amended]).

Further information on these regulations can be obtained from us on enquiry.

Customer Complaints

Danske Bank is committed to providing a high standard of customer service. However, if you are not satisfied with any aspect of our service, internal complaint handling procedures are in place to deal with your concerns effectively and in the correct manner.
